

Waterloo Wellington Children's Groundwater Festival

Privacy Policy and User Agreement

We at the Waterloo Wellington Children's Groundwater Festival (WWCGF) will handle all user information concerned with the WWCGF's App under the name Water Festival.

Acquired Information and Scope of Use

In short we only keep information that is necessary to provide our service. We will not share your data with any third parties.

The WWCGF shall use and acquire information in the following ways:

Information Registered by Users

- To allow users to use the App as smoothly as possible, and to promote effortless communication between users and the App developer.

User Contact Information

- The WWCGF collects user information (Cell Numbers) when the user information is entered into the WWCGF on-line inquiry form, including cell numbers, to help establish user's identity
- Once the WWCGF event is complete the User's information will be deleted from the system

Purpose of Use

- The WWCGF may use the cell number to transmit information from the scope of the Safety Protocol.
- Notification of severe weather
- Notification to return to activity centres
- Notification due to the Lost Child "Code Yellow" policy
- Notification of Closed activity centres

Provision of Information

- The WWCGF will never provide user information to any third parties without the user's consent, unless the WWCGF is obliged and/ or permitted to do so under applicable laws.